Subject: Re: URGENT: Letter to Sir Patrick Vallance concerning sex data amendments

Dear Minister

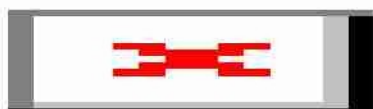

I am not sure if you received this letter?

I hope that the government is now seriously considering how to address the issue of inaccurate data on sex, which it admits is in breach of the Data Protection Act.

Given what has been a 15+ year muddle it is time to sort this out (and there is no need to wait for EHRC guidance on the Equality Act - this is about the Data Protection Act).

We would be keen to provide assistance on how this problem can be solved. If it is not, it is likely to go back to the courts and will end up with the DVS system being delayed and marred in controversy before it starts.

Maya

Dear Minister

Please find a letter attached following last night's debate and the ongoing question of how to ensure sex data is accurately and reliably verified as part of Digital Verification Services.

We would be happy to talk at any time about this.
